

TARIFF PICTURES.
In Wilkesbarre, Pa., manufacturing employees earned on an average $346 a year in 1899, which sum had grown to $133 in 1890. They turned out products valued at $1,133,344 in the former and $4,551,446 in the latter year. Wilkesbarre certainly does not want Free-trade.

MECHIEU ET TUUM.
Inter Ocean.—Andrew Johnson vaunted a "my policy," but Cleveland is the first of American Magistrates to accredit a "my representative" to a foreign power.

THANKFUL.
St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—Cleveland is overlooking Carl Schurz and Wayne MacVeagh with a degree of vigor and persistence that deserves the praise of all good citizens.

CAN'T UNDERSTAND IT.
Boston Transcript.—Senator Roach desires an investigation. As that is his heart's wish we do not see why the Democrats should step in and prevent the inquiry.

"I AM A DEMOCRAT."
Utica Herald.—The Democratic editor's view is it is abominably wicked in the Republicans to bring up the question of $54,000 from the bank he was connected with. Roach is a Democrat. So am I.

WELLDAMIT.
Frankfort Capital.—Inquiry has been made at this office for a definition of the term "tinker's dam," recently appearing in this paper. It means exactly the reverse of that other d—n which taxpayers use when describing Legislatures that remain too long in session.

AN EXPERIMENT.
New York Press.—It is said that Counsel Richard Olney accepted the Attorney Generalship for one year "as an experiment." The experiment he refers to is his trying to serve as railroad corporation lawyer and law officer of the United States at the same time.

"TOTAL DISABILITY" BLACK.
St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—When the promised "purging of the pension roll" begins it is to be hoped that attention will be given to the case of General J. G. Black, who is drawing $100 a month for "total disability," and at the same time receiving $500 a year as a Democratic Congressman from Illinois.

WHO RULES?
Buffalo Express.—President Cleveland was asked to write a statement for the New York Press Club's Fair. This is it: "The people must be educated for the people's rule." The course of the Administration since March 4th would make more appropriate if he had said: "Grover Cleveland rules, and he does not need any education."

"MY COMMISSIONER DID IT."
Chicago Inter Ocean.—The Hawaiian Democracy is assured that it is not by order of the great American Republic that the United States flag has been hauled down, but by order of a personaged of the first President of the United States who has dared to speak in the language of monarchs. Queen Victoria and Emperor Wilhelm speak of "My Ambassador" or "My Consul." Grover Cleveland speaks of "My Commissioner," who is authorized to "represent me."

CLEVELAND'S TRICK IN HAWAII.
Indianapolis Journal.—Under the circumstances the lowering of the American flag from the Government Building, where it had been placed at the request of the Provisional Government, and the ordering of the Boston's season of the Island, has too much the appearance of backing down and out to suit the American people, and unless some better reason were given for this action it is not given by Mr. Blount himself the people will conclude that the Administration is playing a tricky and underhanded game.

THE FRANKLIN WILL SUSTAINED.
The decision of Judge Arnold of Pennsylvania sustaining the will of Benjamin Franklin will meet with general approval. That instrument left $1,000 to be loaned at 5 per cent. to mechanics beginning married life. It provided further that the interest should be compounded for 100 years, when two-thirds of the total sum was to go to public benefactions and the remainder to form a new loan fund for young married mechanics, the interest from this to be compounded for another 100 years as before. An attempt was made to break the will on the ground that it was an evasion of the law against perpetuities. Judge Arnold sustains very sensibly that this law is not infringed where the bequest is for charitable objects.
